Putting Down Roots

Check (for a one-time gift or for pledge payments)

Utilizing the envelope in the pledge packet, please mail your check addressed to The Learning Community along with this form for a one-time gift or to make your first pledge installment payment. Please indicate Putting Down Roots on the memo line. For future installments, you will receive a reminder from our staff at the time payment is due.

Bank Electronic Funds Transfer

Most banks have an auto-pay or bill pay services associated with your individual banking account. They can electronically send funds, or mail a check, to a payee that you designate. This can be done as a one time payment or as a recurring payment with a start and an end date. This is also called ACH payments and is how direct deposit works.

To donate via this method, please log into your online bank account and complete the required information. If you select the "mail a check" option, you will need the following details:

Payee: The Learning Community School

Mailing Address: PO Box 1143, Black Mountain, NC 28711

Memo line: Putting Down Roots

If you select the electronic funds transfer/ACH method, you will need the bank routing and account information for TLC. Please contact Holly Baumgartner, Director of Administration, for this information (holly@thelearningcommunity.org).

Investment Asset Transfer

You may also donate securities, such as stocks, bonds, or mutual funds. Please review the possible tax benefits with your financial adviser to determine specific benefits to you. To donate publicly traded securities to The Learning Community School, you will need the accepting financial account information for TLC. Please contact Holly Baumgartner, Director of Administration (holly@thelearningcommunity.org) for this information.

In Kind Contributions

Donations of your professional services and time are always welcome. Donations of goods and equipment may also be an option.

If you would like to donate as an in kind contribution, please contact Holly Baumgartner, Director of Administration (holly@thelearningcommunity.org).
